

Band 6G Job Description

The Client Innovation Center at East Lansing, is looking for entry level testers with good knowledge of manual testing, Automation testing and mobile testing process. You should be able to talk about different types of testing and should be able to analyze requirements and write test cases. You should also have knowledge in at least one of the programming languages.

Your job would require you to write and execute test cases, create and track defects, work with test management tools, provide SIT and UAT support, create documents as needed and have strong communication skills. You should be a self-learner with acumen to progress to automation tester.

Preferred Experience Knowledge in Computer programming or Testing. – 1- 2 months                  Exposure to ANY of the following computer programming technologies: Java, C++, C#, .NET                  Knowledge of Relational Databases and SQL programming – 1-3 months                  Certification in any Testing registered course.
Required Education - High School
Preferred Education - Bachelor's degree

Band 6A /6B Job Description

The Client Innovation Center at East Lansing, is looking for junior level testers with basic experience in and having good knowledge of manual testing, Automation testing and mobile testing process. You should have knowledge and experience in different types of testing and should be able to analyze requirements and write test cases. You should also have knowledge in at least one of the programming languages.

Your job would require you to write and execute test cases, have knowledge and experience in creating and tracking defects, working with test management tools, provide SIT and UAT support, create documents as needed and have strong communication skills. You should be a self-learner with acumen to progress to automation tester.

Preferred Experience Knowledge in Computer programming or Testing. – 6 months                  Exposure to ANY of the following computer programming technologies: Java, C++, C#, .NET                  – 6 months                  Knowledge of Relational Databases and SQL programming – 6 months                  Certification in any Testing registered course.
Required Education - High School
Preferred Education - Bachelor's degree

Send your resume to: resumes.usa@specialisterne.com